August 18, 2020 Astrology Fun Bring Your Charts!

Let's have a little August Summer get together. Share your personal astrological observations, and questions. Meeting at the Art League, no Zoom . Open to all!!! Members $10, non-members $15 at the door.

September 29, Ray Grasse will present “Celestial Cycles and the Astrology of Our Time”

Ray will draw upon his four decades as an astrologer to look at current events and such developments as the U.S. Pluto return, the abortion controversy, the Age of Aquarius, a two-tiered approach to history, and many others. He is a writer and photographer based in the American Midwest.

This is a Hybrid meeting for members at the Art League , and Mr. Grass will Zoom in from his location.

Contact Ray at www.raygrasse.com and www.raygrassephotography.com.

October 20, Robert Corre will present, The Sum is Greater Than The Whole

Most people examine a chart in a chaotic and haphazard fashion which predisposes them to becoming overwhelmed with the risk of becoming discouraged. This ends typically with frustration and only modest satisfaction. We introduce a solution: A rational, elegant yet simple methodology that stresses discipline and organization.

This is a Hybrid meeting at the Art League. Robert will Zoom in from his location.
